

Henk van Dijk

Date of Birth: 3 February 1942 Enkhuizen The Netherlands

Education and qualifications

1960-1965 Study of History University of Amsterdam

1968-1970 Study of History, Sociology and Demography Universities of Groningen and Wageningen

1975 Ph.D. Erasmus University Rotterdam

Work experience

1964-1965 History teacher at the Rijks hbs Zaltbommel

1965-1970 History teacher and student councillor at the Lorentz Lyceum Eindhoven

1970-1976 Lecturer (since 1965 senior lecturer) at the Faculty of Social Sciences of the Erasmus University Rotterdam

1976-1978 Director of the Centre of the History of Society of the Erasmus University Rotterdam

1978- Ordinarius Professor for the History of Industrial Societies at the Erasmus University Rotterdam

1980-1983 Dean of the Arts Faculty

1979-1983 Member of the SSRC for Social and Economic History

1984 Visiting fellow Historisches Institut Berlin

1984-1987 Member Theater Council of the City of Rotterdam

1986-1990 Chairman of the Foundation for the computerization of Museums in the Netherlands for the Ministry of Culture etc.

1988 Delivering lecture in honour of professor Jürgen Kocka, when he received an honorary degree at the Erasmus University.

1989-1992 Dean of the Arts Faculty

1990-1992 Pro-rector of the Erasmus University Rotterdam

1986-1987 Visiting fellow Zentrum für interdisziplinäre Forschung Bielefeld (FRG)

1988-1993 Participating in Erasmus Programmes and teaching at several European Universities

1992 Delivering lecture in honour of Dr. Richard von Weizsäcker, president of the F.R. Germany, when he received honorary degree in Rotterdam.

1992-1993 Temporary Professor of Social and Economic History at Leipzig University (FRG)

1978-1993 Supervisor of 28 Ph.D. dissertations and member of several Ph.D. examination committees

1997-2001 Co-ordinator of the Eurocities programme subsidised by the European Union; a programme for university teaching by internet about problems and development of European Cities (in this programme participated Universities of Tampere, Stockholm, Essex, Rotterdam, Warsaw, ISCTE (Lisbon), and Salzburg.

2000- Director and co-ordinator postgraduate course Information and Document Management Skills and abilities

Professor emeritus since 2007

Dutch as a native speaker, competent understanding of English, French and German both (speaking and writing). Reasonable knowledge of Danish, Swedish and Norwegian and some knowledge of Italian.

I consider myself computer literate through training on as well as MS-DOS machines, Unix systems and Linux (word processing, databases, SPSS, communication etc.). Specific skills in e-teaching, and e-publishing.

Published among others

<http://publicationslist.org/h.v.dijk>