

Gelina Harlaftis

---

Professor Gelina Harlaftis has graduated from the University of Athens and has completed her graduate studies in the Universities of Cambridge (M.Phil.) and Oxford (D.Phil.), in St. Antony's College between 1983 and 1988. She has taught at the University of Piraeus from 1991 to 2002 and since 2003 is at the Department of History of the Ionian University. She was President of the International Association of Maritime Economic History during the period 2004-2008 and also Chair of the Dpt of History of the Ionian University (2004-2008). She has been Visiting Fellow at the University of Greenwich, U.K. and Memorial University of Newfoundland (1998-1999). During the fall of the academic year 2008-2009 she was an "Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., International Visiting Scholar" in Business History Program of the Harvard Business School and in the spring a Visiting Fellow at All Souls College of the Oxford University. Among her publications are History of Greek-owned Shipping (Routledge Press, 1996), New Directions in Mediterranean Maritime History, (RMH, no. 28, IMEHA, St. John's, Newfoundland, Καναδάς 2004) with Carmel Vassalo, and Diaspora Entrepreneurial Networks. Five Centuries of History, (Berg, 2005) with I. Baghdiantz McCabe and I. Minoglou. Her last books are Leadership in World Shipping: Greek Family Firms in International Business (Palgrave/Macmillan, 2009) with Ioannis Theotokas, and New Ways of History (IB Tauris 2010) with N. Karapidakis, K. Sbonias and V. Vaiopoulos.